Monday, 24 November 2025 - Pontevedra Day

Pontevedra is a city and municipality in Spain, capital of the same name. It is located in the northwest of the Iberian Peninsula, in the autonomous community of Galicia.

It is known as the "Capital of the Rías Bajas", "City of the Lérez" and "Boa Vila" (La Bonne Ville or The Good City), a name given by the French chronicler Jean Froissart and has been baptised by the French media as the "City where the pedestrian is king".

A monumental city of art and history, it has a historic centre which, after Santiago de Compostela, is the most important in Galicia.

Combarro is a parish in the municipality of Poyo, in the Galician province of Pontevedra (Spain). Until the beginning of the 20th century it was an independent municipality.

It is a seaside town, close to both the provincial capital, Pontevedra (7 km), and to other well-known towns such as Sanxenxo.

The most outstanding feature is its old quarter, where there are a large number of hórreos (raised granaries) and cruceiros (stone crosses), as well as the parish church.

Combarro has been declared of cultural interest as a Historic Site and as a Historic Site.

Tuesday, 25 November 2025 - O Grove Day

We will visit the Aquarium of O Grove, to discover the seabed of this Atlantic coast, the Salting and Fishing Museums, Punta Moreiras promenade with its open-air sculpture museum, good views and photos, we will take the opportunity to take a tour of San Vicente do Mar, A Lanzada, and A Toxa Island, and in the meantime, we will enjoy a lunch of brotherhood.

Punta Moreiras is a small peninsula of O Grove located very close to the small and traditional port and fishing village of Meloxo. On Meloxo there are also the remains of an ancient fishing industry of Roman origin.

This coast was used for the installation of canneries and salted fish factories by the sea, mainly of Catalan origin. There were up to eight sardine and octopus drying factories in the vicinity of Punta Moreiras.

In the second decade of this century, Punta Moreiras and its surroundings were developed to create an ethnographic and scenic area for the enjoyment of the people.

Thursday, 27 November 2025 - Galicia Day - Santiago de Compostela and Lalín

PILGRIMAGE TO SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA

Visit by coach to Santiago de Compostela, each confrérie / Association will carry its own banner and the members will wear their own clothes. On arrival, we will make a short pilgrimage along the Way of St. James to the Plaza del Obradoiro and we will enter the Cathedral, where we will take our seats to attend the Pilgrim's Mass.

During the Mass, the president of CEUCO will make a solemn offering to our patron saint, the Apostle St. James, on behalf of all of us.

At the end of the Holy Mass, we will take a souvenir photo in the surroundings of the cathedral.

Santiago de Compostela is a Spanish city and municipality, capital of Galicia and seat of its government institutions, the Xunta de Galicia and Parliament.

The ancient city of Santiago has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985. It stands out for being one of the three great centres of Christian pilgrimage, together with Jerusalem and Rome, as tradition has it that the apostle St. James the Greater was buried there. Of special artistic importance is its cathedral, dedicated precisely to the apostle St. James, and which is the destination of hundreds of thousands of pilgrims from all over the world who every year follow the Pilgrim's Way to Santiago de Compostela.

All participants will be given the Pilgrim's Badge to Santiago de Compostela RECEPTION IN THE TOWN COUNCIL OF LALÍN. CAPITAL OF THE COCIDO DE LALÍN.

From Santiago de Compostela, we will travel to the city of Lalín, where we will be received by its mayor, who will present us all with a Cocido de Lalín badge and later we will be able to enjoy a tasty Cocido Galego, during the Lunch of Brotherhood of this day.

Lalín is a municipality in Spain, in the Galician province of Pontevedra, and a city, capital of the Deza region.

Cocido de Lalín is a typical dish from the Spanish town of Lalín. It is made with pork products as a base. This dish, which is well known in Galician cuisine, is the theme of the town's 'Feria del cocido' (stew fair) and 'cocido month'. There is also a protective order, the "Encomenda do cocido". Promoted by the town council and the Concellería de Promoción Económica, this culinary speciality is present in many other gastronomic events.

Friday, 28th November 2025 - Arousa Estuary Day

At 12.45 pm, in the port of O Grove, we will embark for a sea crossing of the Ría del Mar de Arousa, run by the Cofradía do Centolo Larpeiro de O Grove, to visit the sea where the best spider crab in the world lives and breeds. We will be able to taste it on Saturday at the Gala Dinner of the CEUCO 2025 Congress.

Real
Liga
Naval Española

All those who embark on this trip will be received by the President of the Royal Naval League and by the President of CEUCO, who will present, in commemoration of the 125th Anniversary of that institution, its official insignia, as can be seen in the image, to all the participants.

The return will be at approximately 16.00 hours, and we will have lunch on board after a Galician vermouth session, handmade by PEPA A LOBA, with a base of Albariño wine native to this area.

The menu will consist of Galician Empanada, Steamed Mussels, Seafood Rice, Santiago Cake, Coffee, Albariño Wine, water and soft drinks, and a shot of Crema de Orujo.
